Where next? -

Career Opportunities after Completing a PhD

Monday April 10th 2017

2 pm – 5 pm

Athlone Institute of Technology

This workshop is designed to encourage discussions on the career paths that are possible upon completion of a research project. It will emphasise the necessity to be aware of these avenues in order to plan the next stage of your career.

Guest speakers on the day include representatives from the Department of Agriculture, Food and Marine (DAFM), the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), and delegates from both education and research settings.
